Double Trouble

Double Trouble Comes to Town

This Halloween, Bettsi's Boho Lounge will trade its old New York charm for something deliciously darker. The atmospheric room, beautifully built by Aubrey Rosewood, will welcome creatures of the night for Double Trouble; an evening of mystery, music, mischief and wonderfully wicked company.

For this night, dressing up is not merely encouraged: it is part of the spectacle. Arrive as something glamorous, ghostly, sinister or strange. Become a silver-screen monster, a fallen angel, a midnight aristocrat or a creature entirely of your own invention. Whether your transformation is elegant or outrageous, everyone is invited to embrace the Halloween spirit and make the room come alive with extraordinary characters.

As the party unfolds, you can also look forward to a special guest appearance, adding one more surprise to an already mysterious evening.

So bring a friend, bring an alter ego (or bring both) and step into a bohemian Halloween where nothing is quite what it seems. After all, trouble is always better in pairs.
